SHELTON INVOLVED IN COOPERATIVE PROJECT

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE, C.A. Fredd Technical College, and Community Service Programs of West Alabama, Inc. are currently in process of implementing a cooperative project that will aid disadvantaged youth in Bibb, Greene, Hale and Tuscaloosa County. The project will compliment the federally funded Special Services for Disadvantaged Students and Talent Search programs at Shelton State.

The project will serve a minimum of 15 participants per county over a 12-week period and will include a combined program of counseling, instruction, referral, internship training and a variety of support services.

The first courses are scheduled to begin on November 28 in Eutaw, Alabama and will include GED preparation and college level courses for employees of Vanco Sewing Machine Company and unemployed youth. The Greene County Commission will also be assisting in the project. Registration will be held on Monday, November 27, at Vanco Sewing Machine Company. Classes will begin on November 28. Financial aid advisement and placement testing will be held on November 14-16.

Courses scheduled to be offered through the program include developmental algebra 1 and 11, developmental reading 1 and 2, basic writing 1 and 11, introduction to sociology, intermediate college algebra, college reading 1, English composition 1, first aid and safety, total wellness, and adult basic education (GED).

CHS COMES TO SHELTON STATE

Central High School will visit Shelton State Community College on Friday, December 1. The tour will include both the Fifteenth Street and Skyland Campus. Lunch will also be served. Martha McCurley is director of high school relations.

MADRIGAL DINNER

The Shelton State Foundation in cooperation with the Speech and Fine Arts Department at Shelton State Community College will present the 1989 Madrigal Dinner on Monday and Tuesday, December 11 and 12, at First United Methodist Church.

Wassail will be served at 6:30 p.m. and dinner will be at 7 p.m. Tickets are $25 per person and may be ordered from Lucy Kubiszyn. All profits from the dinner will help fund scholarships for students majoring in the fine arts. For more information on the Madrigal Dinner or to order tickets, call 391-2221.
